

Certificate

UXQB® Certified Professional for Usability and User Experience – Foundation Level (CPUX-F)

David Porretta

has successfully passed the exam for the certificate Certified Professional for Usability and User Experience – Foundation Level (CPUX-F). The exam took place in on 09/11/2018 and was conducted by the certification body International Software Quality Institute (iSQI).

The certificate confirms that the certificate holder has an understanding of the general terms and concepts in the field of Usability and User Experience, in particular in the following areas of competence:

- The human-centred design process
- Definitions, concepts and guidelines
- Understanding and specifying the context of use
- Specifying the user requirements
- Producing design solutions
- Usability tests
- Usability inspections and user surveys

The exam is based on the curriculum of the International Usability and User Experience Qualification Board (UXQB), publicly available at www.uxqb.org.

Certificate number: 18-CPUXFL-145822-27

Stephan Goericke
CEO iSQI GmbH

iSQI GmbH - International Software Quality Institute
Friedrich-Engels-Str. 24
14473 Potsdam | Germany
E-mail: certification@isqi.org
Website: www.isqi.org

Accredited certification body of UXQB

Certificate officially recognized by

Curriculum issued by

Certification conducted by

Certified according to
DIN EN ISO 9001:2008
Audited according to
EN ISO/IEC 17024:2003